

Securing our Island & Moneyval updates Enabling Safer Communities

- Jane Poole-Wilson MHK
Minister for Home Affairs

Securing our Island Strategy – update

Shared responsibilities for joint outcome

Policy Principles to Secure our Island

Comprehensive security measures to identify and target threats

Effective controls at air and seaports

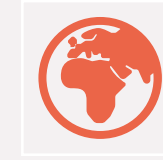

Advanced technology and intelligence sharing

Proportionate and targeted information collection

Efficient, fair and proportionate entry processes

Respect for human rights and dignity

Compliance with international obligations

Adaptive and resilient approach

Regular review and update of security policies

Collaboration with partners for best practices

Prevent: Progress

Enable effective information sharing between Customs, Immigration and Constabulary		Progress update: Ongoing.
Conduct intelligence led operations in partnership with UK and other agencies		Progress update: Ongoing.
Collect, review and assess inbound and outbound passenger data		Progress update: Data now collected. More automated process in development.
Strengthen immigration processes and reduce exploitation of entry systems		Progress update: , Strengthened compliance capacity and work. Immigration Health surcharge work ongoing. Migrant Worker Route changes.
Introduce more scrutiny on private aviation arrivals and departures		Progress update: Ongoing. More work required to automate this process.
Ensure safety of territorial waters and legitimacy of workers		Progress update: Paused to focus on other priority areas.

Protect: Progress

Policy and legislative basis for technology use Identify terrorists, criminals and vehicles for criminal purposes.	 Progress update: ANPR legislation in place, implementation commenced & contributing. Enabling legislation for automatic facial recognition in development.
Transfer Ports Policing officers to Isle of Man Constabulary	 Progress update: Completed in February 2025 and contributing.
Intelligence led approach to monitor arrivals and departures by law enforcement Focus on smaller ports.	 Progress update: Ongoing.
Verify identity of travellers	 Progress update: Consultation on approach to mandatory ID for IOMSPC travel closed 8 June 2026. IOMSPC have removed cash payments for tickets.
Proactively scan and monitor inbound and outbound post	 Progress update: Ongoing.
Law enforcement presence for main air and sea arrivals	 Progress update: Ongoing. Dog unit in place.

Pursue: Progress

Joint enforcement and disruption for Serious and Organised Crime Groups with UK Law Enforcement agencies	 Progress update: Ongoing.
Extension of Modern Slavery Legislation to the Isle of Man	 Progress update: Review on hold. Focus on pursuit of unlawful immigration offences.
Seizure of cash, property and assets from criminals using Proceeds of Crime legislation	 Progress update: More than £1m in drugs and assets seized at ports. Recent seizure of more than £1m seized in assets related to Organised Crime Group.

Moneyval

- National Risk Assessment almost complete
- National Action Plan to follow
- Technical and Effectiveness submissions complete
- Significant legislation progressed
- Ongoing engagement and outreach – Strategic Industry Forum
- Mock assessment

What else has DHA been doing?

Responding to sexual offences harms

Review of Sexual Offences legislation

SARC facility – on budget and within agreed timescales

IOMC investment - new tool for investigating child abuse and specialist PVP staff

Criminal Justice system

Extradition Bill

Justice & Home Affairs (Reform and Miscellaneous Amendments) Bill

Criminal Justice Strategy review & refresh

Community Safety and resilience

Emergency Planning work to respond to Covid Review

Fire & Rescue legislation update work

National Infrastructure Security Bill consulted on to be progressed

Securing our Island & Moneyval updates Enabling Safer Communities

- Jane Poole-Wilson MHK
Minister for Home Affairs